The simple way to transfer money overseas when relocating

To ease the stress of your international relocation, Conroy Removals works with Convera, a leading provider of foreign exchange and international payment services.

You can rely on Convera for:

Speed

In some instances, your funds can arrive at your destination country before you do. We can help deliver your funds promptly and reliably via a traceable banking network.

Convenience

The Convera team is a phone call away and always ready to assist.

Personal service

A dedicated foreign exchange specialist can assist you with your funds transfer.

What we offer

Zero fees

As a referral from Conroy Removals, Convera does not charge you a transaction fee*. This includes no fees charged for utilising our holding balances facility¹.

Holding balances

If you have not yet opened an account in your country of destination, that's not a problem. We can secure you a rate and hold your funds in a foreign currency. There is no fee for this service².

Real-time rates

Convera offers real-time exchange rates which provide the opportunity for you to benefit when a currency moves in your favour.

Why Convera?

Convera is one of the largest non-bank providers in the world, and offers efficient clearing in 140+ currencies. Over 30,000 customers around the world trust us to move their money across 200 countries and territories. We understand and appreciate the challenge of currency transfers when moving countries. We are committed to ensuring the foreign exchange aspect of your move is well thought out, your payments are processed efficiently and you receive the best rate outcome at a

How does the process work?

1

At your request, Conroy Removals will have a Convera representative contact you within one business day of receiving your details.

2

To utilise our services, you will be sent terms and conditions to sign, along with a request for supporting documentation.

3

Once your account is established we will arrange for your currency transfer. You will be required to settle funds to a local Convera bank account.

4

On settlement, your currency transfer will be released to your nominated bank account offshore. The bank should receive cleared funds within 12-24 hours.
